Dear Readers,

The lockdown journey has been full of hurdles and almost all of us had wanted to go back to pre-pandemic time period. Alhamdulillah, it is happening, Covid cases have gone down and schools are back to normal.

The investiture ceremony being a jump start to a sublime academic year ahead. Inter-house competitions gave opportunities for our students to unleash their expressions.

Nevertheless, the students of our school sparked its glory in all horizons. In CBSE South Zone - 1 S. Shafana of Grade 8 won Bronze medal in Archery Tournament 2022 Girls under 14 category organized by Delhi Public School, Nadargul, Hyderabad, Telangana on 12th December 2022, A. Abdul Hafeez of Grade 6 won 3 Gold medals & 1 individual championships in Swimming competition 2022 Boys under 11 category organized by Birla Open Minds School, Warangal, Telangana on 4th December 2022. and Abdul Vadhoodh of Grade 12 bagged 3 Golds , 1 Silver and 1 Bronze Medal in Artistic Gymnastics competition in Chennai District Level.

Can we forget about girls' Annual day? It was blooming with colours and the performances were top notch!

Furthermore to come!!!! February's grand event is awaiting for the boys spectacular sports day.

Together with a note for the 10th and 12th grades as their Board exam is coming up, examinations are the most wonderful things as they are the litmus test of our abilities, self-management and also a chance to prove ourselves.

We are extremely overwhelmed at the fact that our students and teachers are leaving no stones unturned in working towards elevating our school's reputation. We will wrap up with our persistent efforts to offer the best for the welfare of our students in the year ahead In sha Allah!

NEVER EVER GIVE UP

Thinking I don't deserve to pass
Through after all the mistakes
That I have done
But I heard a whisper
As heaven bent down
with a ray of light
That flashed on me
Now.....
I'm just a boy, born to fight
Until the light, shines on me
I wish I could do so much more
Its true, true to one's self
To give more and more.....

- GANESH K VI 'BB'

MOM

Mom you're nice
With your beautiful eyes
You're the base
Who support me always
You're the one
Who loves me a tonne
I know that you cook
With the great effort you took
You will always do your best
There is no time to rest
Always you are near
When I shed a tear .

BE LOST OR BE FOUND ?????

Wow..... Super Mario
Elgoog, Slither IO, a terrible trio
Realise that the greatest LORD of all
Is watching you as you're in thrall
By the games you play which are all bogus
But why can't I stop even if I look sus

It is quite evident that it is wrong,
But I don't cease even if I am
attacked throng by throng,
The face of Squid Game behold!!!
I shiver like I'm cold!!!!

Problems internally pressurising.
My heart being drenched in sorrow
is sobbing,
I still pursue, and keep getting sued,
Begging me to stop playing for good,
But why must I? It feels good!!!

I keep spinning like Sonic of blue,
When will the time come for me to cease,
And for my Lord I do actions that please.

I keep falling back like Bowser's defeat,
Drenched in the world of useless stuff,
Will I ever change after watching this feat?

And never ever let the devil puff??

A PRINCESS IN HER CASTLE

A princess in her castle,
Longing for her rescue,
Waiting in a tall-tall tower,
Dreaming it will all be over.
A fire breathing dragon,
Guarding the entrance,
A bridge to cross over
Beneath a swamp, full of alligators,
And yet the princess waited,
For her knight with patience
But as the years flew by,
And no one came her side,
Cause the story is about to change,
For the princess got only herself to blame
So she got ready,

MOHAMMED RAYYAN
II 'C'

Fought the dragon with courage
Crossed the bridge
Past the alligators
And in the end,
She rescued herself from her friend,
And found the truth,
That there is a knight within oneself
To rescue themselves.

ME

I am Afra!
'm who I am.

I'm a young bud of lilly,
Ready to bloom as silly.
I'm filled with curiosity,
To chase away all my adversity.
I'm silly enough to dream of diasies.
I might seem a little crazy,
But... I'm strong enough to show away
my lazy.
I'm a little too crazy,
To the people I love dearly.
This is who I'm.
I'm a masterpiece in the making.

DREAM WHEREVER YOU ARE AND MOVE ON!

Let's be honest, it's a universal truth and a fact that a generation is bound to produce some great minds like that of doctors, engineers, scientists, lawyers etc and that it's been embedded into our mind (ever since we were a bunch of lil kids) that these were all professions of respect and big bucks, but we overlook one category of people, What about the Artists?

On one hand we have careers which will earn you a high position in society but will leave you yearning for doing something that you are passionate about, and on the other hand we have careers that won't be guaranteed to earn you a high position in society but would rather give you something else, inner satisfaction of doing the things that you love.

Is the voice of a singer just as powerful as a therapy session? Is the movement of a figure skater just as elegant and eye-catching as the microscopic world?, Sure that by being a doctor or a lawyer you're doing a noble deed as you can save someone, so does the work of an artist. Perhaps being an engineer or an accountant is family legacy but what about the heart which dulls at the thought of crunching numbers but lights up when seeing a plethora of colors. Look beyond the dividing lines drawn on a white paper FOR you, erase those lines you are bound to, throw the rules away and draw your OWN line that you should walk upon.

You may think that you don't have any dreams to keep you going but maybe that's just because you haven't discovered yourself and if you are one of those who does have a dream, a star-like dream that you'll do anything for. Then all you need to do is just to follow the yellow brick road and walk on till you reach your dream on the other side of the platform.

Remember, doing what you love isn't always fun, sometimes it's demanding, you may have to walk in blindly or on deaf ears but sometimes the courage to do what you love and achieve it is just worth it.

Even though everyone these days is running and rushing towards a fruitless tree without any dreams or happiness and you just wonder "Why am I the only one here", Then do not worry, You are not a Tokyo bullet train, you are just a simple train with a steam engine. You will eventually reach your destination even though it would be at a slower pace but you will have time to look at the sights around you and time to Dream. Dream wherever you are, the Dream will eventually bloom at the end of the ordeal.

Although the beginning of a dream may be weak and tiring, the end will be great and prosperous
So From One Dreamer To Another Dreamer, Just Dream On!

- ARMAAN AHMED X 'BA'

Bird of Wisdom

Once upon a time there was a Merchant who sells the clothes. He often sold clothes on credit in nearby villages. One day, Ramlal was returning from a village after collecting dues.

He decided to rest for a while under a tree. Being tired he soon fell asleep. When Ramlal awoke, he saw a flock of parrots around him. He thought 'How nice it would be if I take one of them home as a pet'. Ramlal threw his shoulder scarf on the flock of parrots and caught one and took it home. Ramlal named the parrot "Jaisel". He bought a beautiful golden cage for it, which has a bar, a swing and a bowl. The parrot was given its favourite food, chillies guavas and pomegranates. Ramlal and his children would often talk to the parrot, and the parrot learnt to mimic. After some time Ramlal had to go to the village again to collect the dues. He said to Jaisel, "I may pass by your old place.

Any messages for your relatives and friends?". The parrot answered, "Tell them, In a golden cage, I live happily enjoying good food and drinks". While walking, Ramlal again rested under the same tree. When he woke he saw the parrots flocking around him. One of them asked, "Man, Where is our friend? How is it?". In a golden cage it lives happily enjoying the food and drinks," he replied. On hearing that, the parrots dropped themselves down and laid like dead. Ramlal thought that all the parrots had died of shock. Upon reaching home, Ramlal said to Jaisel, "I passed on the message to your flocks and they dropped dead." On hearing the sad news Jaisel too dropped down in the cage. Thinking his parrot was dead he took it out of the cage sadly and put it under a tree. Suddenly the parrot flapped its wings and flew up saying, "I got the message of my flocks and I will go back to them".

أَهْمِيَّةُ اللُّغَةِ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ

القرآن صرح عظيم بابه اللغة العربية. اللغة العربية باب متين موصد ومفتاحه علم النحو. العلم ما نفع وليس ما حفظ اللغة العربية يساعدنا على نفعه.

قال شيخ الإسلام أحمد بن عبد الحليم بن تيمية رحمه الله :

" اعلم أن اعتياد اللغة يؤثر في العقل و الخلق و الدين، ويؤثر أيضا في مشاهبة صدر هذه الأمة من الصحابة والتابعين، ومشاهبتهم تزيد العقل والدين والخلق ، وأيضا فإن نفس اللغة العربية من الدين ومعرفتها فرض واجب، فإن فهم الكتاب والسنة فرض ولا يفهم إلّا بفهم اللغة العربية، وما لا يتم الواجب إلّا به؛ فهو واجب".

महिला सशक्तिकरण

महिलाओं में अपने व्यक्तिगत और व्यावसायिक जीवन में निर्माण लेने और पुरुषों के समान अधिकार पाने की क्षमता व्यक्तिगत, राजनीतिक, कानूनी और इसी तरह से सभी क्षेत्रों में हैं।

आजकल महिला सशक्तिकरण समाज में बहुत ही गहन विषय है। विभिन्न क्षेत्रों में महिलाएँ सक्रिय भागीदारी ले रही हैं और अपनी पूरी क्षमता का एहसास कर रही हैं। महिलाओं का सशक्तिकरण तभी प्राप्त होगा जब समाज के विचार में बदलाव आएगा। समाज के ग्रामीण क्षेत्र में अभी भी शिक्षा सामाजिक स्थिति और शादी के मामले में समाज नारियों को समानाधिकार देने से इंकार कर रहे हैं।

आज के ज़माने में महिलाएँ पुरुषों के साथ कंधे से कंधा मिलाकर काम कर रही हैं और अब उन्हें अपने जीवन के बारे में निर्माण लेने का पूरा अधिकार है। आइये हम सब महिलाएँ मिलके संघर्ष जारी रखे और फल प्राप्त करने की कोशिश करें।
